

I do not feel it is fair for this people to continue to call after we have discontinued service with them. This is the same type of harassment that other companies are doing to us. My home is my sanctuary and with them calling me I will no longer have this.